

The way of Love

The darkest days of the year and the dark atmosphere we sense in the daily news needs an antidote. Perhaps the text of 1 Cor 13 can inspire us.

Is there any connection with Christmas in it?

We use playful methods and creative impulses to explore and discover. We will send you a small preparatory task and we will have a creative “after” sharing.

Let us walk the way to Christmas together.

Date

21. December 2022, 19 – 21 CET

(perhaps a little bit longer, depending on the participants)

Information about workshop-leaders

Jes Bouwen was working as a religion teacher and as a voluntary prison pastor. She is addicted to bibliodrama since 2004 as a facilitator and as a bibliodrama trainer, in Belgium and in the EBN.

Anne Coussement once was a religion teacher, but for more than ten years she worked as a hospital pastor. She also started her bibliodrama adventure in 2004. She is an expert in creative and out-of-the-box working and loves to experiment with new technics.

Jes and Anne founded a small organization Het Leerke (little ladder) working with bibliodrama, designing workshops, training and rituals. The changing social context of different religions and the search for the meaning of life is their playground.

Sign-in to this workshop:

Please use this link with the subscription form for sign in:

<https://forms.gle/mA7bKPQbvFmCS7MWA>

If you need to contact us via Mail: agnesbouwen@telenet.be

Language/-s we will work in this workshop:

English (and Dutch)

Extra information

There will be a small preparation task and after exchange.