

Coming home to love

TEXT: Luke 15, 11-32

Each of us experiences many turning points in our lives.

The experience of acceptance, of being accepted as one really is, opens us to relationship with others and with God. The goal of the workshop is to create a space for a gentle encounter with myself and others to discover how I can return home to love.

We will use a variety of creative methods, elements of playing on the online stage, elements of psychodrama, taking walks, sharing groups.

Perfect English is not required. Workshops are organized in association with Umea folk high-school.
